

It Can't Buy You Love

I was helpin' out my daddy to plough our garden beds

When the neighbor's wife dropped by,

She looked sad and hung her head

She said her husband didn't love her, despite all the gold she had

And when she left my daddy sighed, and this is what he said

Money can't buy, Everything

It can't buy you all your dreams, or the truest wedding ring

No, it can't make the most righteous church, or give the strength and will to work

But more than anything, It can't buy you love

I once went to a friend's house, in Nashville, Tennessee

And though they had their music right, well there was no family

For the parents worked all day and hardly saw the kids at night

Although they had a lot of money,

I knew it wasn't right, cause

As time went on I had a wife, we were happy as could be

We didn't have much money, but we had our family

And every time that we felt poor or just couldn't stand the tide

We knew that there was tender love,

And we were by each other's side
